

Elective 1: Women Serving Christ

Biblical Womanhood - growing women to handle the Bible by tracing the major themes and passages in the Bible that relate to women and womanhood.

Women Engaging with God's World - growing women in their ability to bring the Bible to bear on specific issues that women face in our world including: family, work, church, HIV/AIDS, abuse, body image and marriage.

Communicating God's Word - equipping women to communicate God's word effectively in a variety of settings. The course includes practical workshops and constructive feedback.

Elective 2: Engaging with God's World

Building Bridges - developing skills to engage with people and culture, building a bridge with Biblical Christianity. Using apologetics and worldviews to connect meaningfully to the Gospel in everyday conversation and current issues.

Christian Culture Leadership - forming and applying a Biblical perspective on contemporary issues (including ethics, poverty, economics, spirituality, the media, justice, work, sexuality, identity, etc.) in order to make a positive contribution to our society.

God's Word in God's World - applying Bible passages to today's issues and to various aspects of individual and community life. Understanding our cultural contexts and how to faithfully address the issues from God's word.

Graduates Testimonies

JBC has a crucial role to play... the good, solid, meaty teachings of JBC serve to help us.

Karabo Marima (Leader, Campus Outreach, Gauteng)

As a Bible school, JBC uniquely combines a theoretical approach to theology with a practical application of this theology in a relevant and contextualised way - this ensures a love for both God and people - which is critical to being a faithful messenger of God to His people.

Ignace Badi Badibanga (Gospel Community Pastor, Bryanston Bible Chapel, Johannesburg)

JBC helps train and equip leaders and it has led to many of these leaders faithfully preaching God's word every Sunday. The new Soweto Campus will help see faithful Bible teaching in this strategic township.

Mbulelo Maliza (Pastor, Hope Church, Johannesburg)

The JBC course is enriching and relevant to our context for Bible teaching. Having completed the course, the passion it gave me for Scripture has revolutionized my life. It has given me confidence to teach other pastors and church leaders in Zimbabwe. Seeing JBC growing is exciting: I can just imagine the incredible impact it will have in the South African context and beyond in the years ahead.

Rev. Dr. Godfrey Chikari, director, Institute of Bible Teaching, Bulawayo, Zimbabwe

JBC is doing wonders in South Africa amongst untrained pastors in Gauteng. Some of my colleague pastors now know how to fulfil the Great Commission of Christ.

Dr. Edwin Bekele, Professor, University of Johannesburg
